The woman vote in Colorado increased from 46,720 in 1896 to 86,943 this year, and it was largely brought out by a desire to defeat Senator E. O. Walcott, on account of his recent divorce.

Gen. Sickels made an eloquent appeal to the President, recalling how solidly the veterans had stood by every patriotic thing for the past 40 years, and suggesting that in view of their advanced age the President should signalize the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th by some act of signal justice and favor to them. The President seemed to be strongly impressed with the idea.—National Tribune.

The Clinton Republican is publishing from week to week interesting excerpts, thirty years old, from the columns of its early day predecessors. Among the paragraphs is one concerning the possible resumption of specie payments, the attention of the Clinton merchants being called to the fact that "pennies, two-cent, three-cent and five-cent pieces and an occasional dime are in circulation in New York City" and that if they would commence the sale of certain articles at odd cents, "4 cents, 9 cents, 19 cents, and so on" the people of Clinton would soon have "something that jingles" in their pockets.

Ohio has practically adopted the "Election of Senators by the People" plan by having the candidates for the position come before their respective State Conventions for nomination, but an unexpected difficulty develops. Practically, all the Republicans desire Senator Foraker re-elected. But though he has always been one of the foremost temperance men in the State, and once went down to defeat for governor because he would not yield a particle to the liquor sellers, he has incurred the displeasure of some radical Prohibitionists, and they threaten the defeat of several candidates for the Legislature if he is put on the State ticket for reelection.

Boys Sell Their Skin

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—At the bedside of little Felix Machut, whose hand was denuded of skin by a sandpapering machine a month ago, twelve boys to-day bared their left arms and allowed surgeons to slice from two to four inches of skin from their arms directly over the biceps. This was grafted upon the thigh of Machut, where previously a pocket had been cut into the skin and the hand inserted. In all, thirty-seven inches of skin was removed from the boys' arms and planted on the wound in Machut's hip. The case is one of the most successful and extensive attempts at skin grafting on record. When Machut's hand was injured, in order to avoid amputation a pocket was cut in the unfortunate lad's hip and the hand sewed in. In three weeks the hand took on enough flesh to cover the bones and remaining muscles, and an advertisement brought the boys to the operating table to furnish the skin to cover the wound in the hip. The boys were given $3 an inch for the skin taken from their arms.

School Notes.

Our Library is receipt of a gift of about 50 excellent volumes from Mr. W. C. Bibb, of Minneapolis. If those who are more directly concerned in our school's would imitate this liberality we should have good reason to be proud. If you have some good books let us put them to use for you.

It is not our purpose to give up trying, and we are not going to let you alone until our library is in better condition. Of course you intend to do something for us; so why not do it now?

We hope that parents will help us to induce pupils to go more nearly directly.

Since the end of the first quarter there is evidence of renewed determination on the part of pupils. Let us try to keep it alive.

Yours Respectfully,
 M. F. HIGGINS.

James Ferguson was in St. Louis Wednesday and Thursday.
